

9th Annual Hard Dance Awards are go! Have your say today!

In the last year, hard music culture has continued to expand into new and exciting territory and the Hard Dance Awards powered by Trackitdown.net is set to record the winners once more. Hard DJs have stormed the DJ Mag Top 100 Poll and regular dedicated events around the world for up to 45,000 ravers continue to stoke the thirst for this full-on scene!

Voting is now open at www.harddanceawards.com for fans of the scene worldwide to have their say in who has helped shape the sound and style of the last 12 months. Powered once again by leading download store www.trackitdown.net the awards website includes 100 interviews with scene leaders and Best of 2011 charts available to download legally and in the highest quality.

For the first time the awards ceremony will be held in The Netherlands at the huge Matrixx club on 9th March with a monster line-up of artists from 5 key territories around the world. Tickets are on sale now and are flying out there door so find out more information on the Hard Dance Awards website and come join the party! Performers will be spinning the whole spectrum of exciting sounds that make up hard dance music in 2012.

This year also sees a new international category that celebrates the scene in each corner of the world. Fans can now vote for the Best DJ from each continent to ensure that the Hard Dance Awards powered by Trackitdown.net maintains its mandate to represent the whole hard planet! As we see the scene grow in places like USA and Australia as well as hot artists exported from Japan and South Africa there's never been a better time to shout loud about local talent.

So head to www.harddanceawards.com and make yourselves heard!